01 / TUNAL GROUP × SAMUEL NMOMAH

With Tunal Group, a new chapter begins

The collaboration, through the fighter's eyes.

Tunal Group made the first contact with Samuel. He joined the project believing that a team and a fighter can build important steps together. He makes clear that the relationship is beginning: their shared story is still to be written. His expectations centre on trust, seriousness and professionalism. With Tunal, his direction remains the one guiding his career: progressing towards major occasions and pursuing his ambition of a world title.

02 / THE STORY

Finding his way. Leaving a legacy.

Samuel was born in Nigeria and grew up in Italy, where he lives today. He describes a turbulent childhood that included four years in a foster home. He played football before a chance encounter with his first coach brought him into a boxing gym and gave him a new direction.

He sees boxing as a sport that helped shape the man he is today. Fiercely competitive, he wants to use that drive to give his family a better life and leave a legacy for future generations. In his account, becoming a positive example for young people facing difficulties matters alongside his achievements in the ring.

03 / THE JOURNEY

Experience fuels the ambition.

Samuel dates his professional debut to 16 December 2016. He reports an amateur record of 31 wins, 6 losses and 2 draws, five regional titles, and silver and bronze medals in national tournaments.

His questionnaire lists two WBC International Silver titles and one WBA Mediterranean title. Winning his first WBC title remains a strong memory. His professional record, checked on BoxRec on 19 October 2026, is 21 wins, including 5 by knockout, 1 loss and no draws. The titles and amateur figures mentioned here come from his questionnaire.

HIS AMBITION

Become a world champion, improve his family's life and leave a positive impact long after his last fight.
